

I am writing to ask that you do NOT allow Sinclair Broadcasting to use their stations to broadcast the "Stolen Honor" documentary. This documentary is not really a documentary - it is clearly one-sided, anti-Kerry, and amounts to free political advertising for the Bush campaign. It is a blatant attempt to influence the upcoming election by flooding the airwaves with biased reporting. This is exactly what regulations on political advertising were intended to prevent.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Please stop Sinclair Broadcasting from using their market share to hijack our democracy. Thank you.
